VI Mon. Auguſt hath xxxi days.

Has God, thou Fool! work'd ſolely for thy Good,
Thy Joy, thy Paſtime, thy Attire, thy Food?
Who for thy Table feeds the wanton Fawn,
For him as kindly ſpread the flow'ry Lawn.
Is it for thee the Lark deſcends and ſings?
Joy tunes his Voice, Joy elevates his Wings.
Is it for thee the Mock-bird pours his Throat?
Loves of his own, and Raptures, ſwell the Note.

VII Mon. September hath xxx days.

The bounding Steed you pompouſly beſtride,
Shares with his Lord the Pleaſure and the Pride.
Is thine alone the Seed that ſtrows the Plain?
The Birds of Heav'n ſhall vindicate their Grain.
Thine the full Harveſt of the golden Year?
Part pays, and juſtly, the deſerving Steer.
The Hog that plows not, nor obeys thy Call,
Lives on the Labours of this Lord of all.
